Dear June and Cindy and Harry, I am so sorry that Mervin passed away. I just saw you June and Mervin at Hardees about 3 weeks ago. I did not know that Mervin was not feeling well. I won't be able to come to the services, but wanted you to know how sorry I am. Mervin was a wonderful person. I know you will all see him in Heaven someday. But I also know how lonely you will be without him. In God's love. thinking about you all. Love Carol and Jim Sellers

So sorry for your loss. I saw you and merv just last week at hardees. I hadn't seen him for awhile. Always enjoyed talking with merv, and working with him at the car shops. God has a way of letting us see people before they are gone. Hope to see him again someday. May god ease your sorrow and pain.
