“ *Bob will always have a special place in my heart. As our manager of the Downstate Ramblers, he was always honest to tell it like it is. I know when I was playing the fiddle for the band, there is lots of memories of good times traveling with Bob across the the country in the old "Chicken Coop" playing Bluegrass Music for the many folks over the years. He will be missed. God Bless and RIP !!

I think I speak for all the Downstate Ramblers, when I say Bob Stuber was a great man. He spent years promoting and managing the band. Myself and many of the band members that were fortunate enough to have worked with Bob over the years hold cherished memories of him. Our hearts and prayers go out to the Stuber family. Bob will remain forever and always a Downstate Rambler.

“ I remember many years ago when I was about 10 or 11 years old, my Mom and I were visiting my aunt in Salem. Mom and Aunty got into an argument so Mom and I started walking home. Home was way out by Slapout so it was a long walk. We were about halfway home when Bob Stuber happened along. Good ol' Bob picked us up and drove us the rest of the way home. That was about 50 years ago but that stuck with me.. He was a great man! RIP Mr. Stuber!!
