“ I knew Diane her entire life and know of no finer angel in God's firmament than she who has ascended to perfect peace. She was such a perfect manifestation of kindness and goodness her family will miss her terribly as will all who had the privilege of knowing her. She has risen in glory and now rests in peace.

“ My sympathy is extended to all of you. I ran into Diane frequently in Salem at Dollar Tree or Wal-Mart while she was either putting out cards or shopping. She talked about how she was fighting cancer. I met Diane when Christy and my daughter Tricia were taking baton lessons.... a few years ago. I am truly blessed that I had the opportunity to visit with her throughout the years. May God grant all of you extra strength and comfort during this difficult time.

*With deepest sympathy,

My deepest sympathy to all of you. I didn't know Diane for very long but I know what a kind and considerate lady she was. I'll always treasure coming with Drew when he had the privilege of photographing your beautiful family. I then saw her at Walmart and Dr Oza's office each time having such deep and beautiful conversations with her. Drew and I are deeply saddened for your and our great loss. She was one beautiful lady.

“ Diane recently told me she had such good memories of my mom taking us swimming in Salem and then stopping at the Maid-Rite for burgers. We had so much fun. She was very loved! Love, Carolyn Nordin Bushong.

“ So many memories of the fun and craziness we all had with Diane during our high school years. From riding bikes through town in the middle of the night, camping out, spending time at the Mug, the Sub, ballgames. . .Pushing cars down the driveway , etc. etc. All of our fun times led to lots of laughter and wonderful memories. I know Diane's family has many special memories with the children and grandchildren. May they find strength in these wonderful memories. May God bless and comfort the Goddard family during these difficult times.
