“ I am so saddened to hear this news. Janice was a beautiful woman who had the greatest heart. I didn't get the chance to know her as long as I wished I had, but I can say that in the few years I did, she made all the difference in my life.

Janice always was and Ray still is, they both are such caring people, and in my opinion, both are truly a gift to have in your life. Janice even made me a few homemade items during my pregnancy and after. I still have her ornaments on my Christmas tree every year. She always treated me and my daughter as if we were family, and I just wish I could have talked to her one last time.
