“ I met Lindell when I worked in the office at Valley Steel! What a personality! We recently renewed our friendship with visits and texts. So glad that happened. So sorry to his family. He has left quite a void.

“ I went to grade school with Lindell and hung around him a lot in the late sixties and early 70s. I hadn't seen him for many years until I visited Mt. Vernon about a month ago. He had not changed one bit. He was exactly the same as he was when he was young....ALWAYS happy; ALWAYS funny; ALWAYS kind, and a loyal friend.

He never met a stranger, so I am sure he is in Heaven, happy, funny, kind, and talking to everyone and telling them about Orchardville.

May he rest in peace!

“ I'm so sad for the loss the Lindell. I worked closely with him on Tour I at the Centralia Post Office. He could light up the night with his wit—leaving us laughing out loud. We both came from Valley Steel (different offices) and joined the Postal Service the same day. He will be missed but Heaven is enjoying his humor now. My sympathy to his family.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Lindell’s passing. We were lifelong friends and shared so many memories of our days at Mills and Orchardville schools. He could always make me laugh with his stories of our musical performances. He was the talented one for sure! I will miss his phone calls and our conversations. He was so supportive during Mike’s hospitalization and passing, and he always brightened my days with his calls. He will be missed by many. My deepest sympathy to Lindell’s family and to all of his many friends who loved him.

A picture says a thousand words! Little Elvis, Tooter, Peanuts or any other moniker that Lindell was called over the years, I have known him from the 4th grade, through High School and College, and up to a few days ago when he would call me three or four times a week. To me, he was a consummate entertainer, musician, song writer and madcap jokester that always kept his other Orchardville buddies, Bill Dagg, Ted Ellis and Gary Sloan in stitches. In spite of that Lindell was a straight A student when he credited to his teacher and mentor, Stanley Greathouse and his musical skills to Bob Rogers. While in college Lindell was a featured performer at the Kaskaskia Opry with the Delano Dagg (Bill's brother) performing with such guest artists as Barbara Fairchild. He also had an alter ego act for his comedy side he called "Homer Henson." Fortunately with the help of a friend at WFIW, he was able to produce a two CD set of many of his original song so he will be ever present to his many friends and fans. Lindell Lee Lowery has left the building.....but his memories and music live on.

Yes, Nyhl, Lindell talked about you often. He wondered if we weren't related...or at least cousins of Homer's!

“ I only knew Lindell for a short time during my employment at Heritage Woods, but he very quickly became incredibly important to me. Lindell shared his gift of songwriting and music with me. He told me lots of stories and showed me so many pictures (he was very proud of his camera phone) of "back home staples" such as churches or old corner store locations, etc. He was so very talented, and he was an absolute joy to be around. I quickly learned to cherish Lindell and the light he brought to my life. He even let me clean, purge, and remodel his room - he was quite the adorable pack rat! I enjoyed his stories about his ex wife with whom he was still friends I believe, his late fiancé, his children and grandchildren. We laughed and cried together. I remember the song he told me he wanted played at his funeral. I was saddened to see there were no public services. I wish I could pay my respects. Truthfully, I wish I would've gone to visit him after I left the assisted living facility. I will always regret not being able to bid him farewell. He was an extraordinary guy. I will miss him dearly, and I'll remember him with fondness. Rest in peace, Lindell. I'm so thankful our paths crossed. Thank you for the songs you wrote me! I will treasure them! I am praying for his family and all those affected by his loss. May Jesus comfort you in this time of grief and despair. May He help you to rejoice in the gift of Lindell's life and his new found life in Heaven with our merciful Father.

“ This is the saddest news I've heard in a long time. "Triple L", as I called him was one of the nicest person I ever have known. I worked with (and his brother Bill) at the Centralia Post Office his entire career. He will be missed by all of us...
