by Thomas Harvey

So sadly we will miss you more than you will know A part of us is holding on a part is letting go You blessed us with your elegance your loving style and grace But most of all you blessed us with the smile upon your face The journey you embark upon we know you're not alone For God in all his glory has come to take you home Home to where you will find what his love will truly bring When you stand there on his golden shore and hear the angels sing

“ Mandie has been a part of my life for about 9 years. I took care of her at Murray's and if I was feeling sad and blue or just having a bad day, I could go to her and she would make me smile and make things better. She will always be a part of my family forever. She was well loved by everyone. Rest in peace our little Angel.

“ I remember when Mandie first came in to Murrays, she was so tiny she looked just like a little doll. Over the years Mandie continued to be a joy, her smile could brighten the day when things got tuff. I loved taking her out of her wheelchair and rocking her. It has been several years since I have seen her but I see from her picture she is still as beautiful as always. She truly was one of Gods special little angles. I am so sorry for your loss Vickie and Raymond at the people at Murrays. Rest in Peace Little Angel!

Ray and Vickie, I too was there when Mandie came to Murray. We have been through a lot in all these years and I have enjoyed working with you and Mandie. One of my favorite memories came flooding back when I saw a picture of Mandie sitting with grandma and grandpa Vest. I would come intowork on 2nd shift and find Mandie sitting in the lobby right in between gma and gpa and Mandie was about to giggle her way right out of there arms because gma and gpa Vest had nodded off! Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Don't worry, Mandie is running in the streets of gold greeting everyone she knows!
