“ My favorite memory of Penny was when my sister Marissa and I were working at Salem Walmart together. I was working in the produce section. Penny has come in for some lettuce for her cafe and she came over to say hi and ask how our family was doing. I told her Marissa was actually working a shift up front at that moment as a cashier, and we were all doing well. I went to restock the lettuce for her with fresh product out of the freezer and she was so happy she caught me at a good time! Lol! Several minutes later I was out on the produce floor working and she came running back to me, excited with disbelief in her voice: “Have you SEEN your sister’s HAIR?! Stuber girls aren’t supposed to be blonde!” I couldn’t help but laugh. I went home and told Marissa and dad that story, it was so funny. She is sorely missed, was so kind and left a loving mark on all who knew her. I hope she is hugging her brother now, who I know she missed dearly, and I hope she throws in a hug to my dad for good measure from us. We miss you Penny.

“ Penny and I became friends when I needed her most. I had moved from my home state of Indiana and was very sad. I wasn't fitting in well at all. I was assigned to sit beside her in English class. (Mrs.Brinkerhoff).. Penny made me feel loved, accepted and made me laugh. I will never forget you my friend.. until we meet again.. you're healed now.. I love you
