“ I have known Wanda Kay since their family moved into the Liberty neighborhood In I guess the 1950s. We went to school together, visited each other's homes, went to Liberty Methodist Church together, were friends. Her mother, Venita, was our Methodist Youth leader and led 4H for us at one time. I have many precious memories of her, her parents, Rolla and Venita, sister and brother, Una Mae and Ronnie. My sympathy to her family in their loss.
