“ Today I visited a site near Branson MO that reminded my of Michael Ray Hawkins so I looked up and read over his obituary and the memories again. The heartfelt tribute from Raini prompted me to visit his Facebook page and there I was surprised to hear of Wilma’s recent passing. During the early 1980’s when I knew Wilma, she welcomed me into her life openly and with love. Even after Michael and I parted ways she kept in touch occasionally and was kind to me. I took a road trip from Minnesota and visited Mikes grave at Ebenezer few years ago. Wilma’s motherly love for Mike was always obvious to me but spoke clearly in the details she put into his headstone. In fact the wounded warrior depicted there was the same sculpture I visited today at Top of the Rock in Ridgedale MO. Absolutely Beautiful. Wilma and I shared our Baptist upbringing and faith in Jesus Christ and I know we will meet again. My sympathies to you Debbie and the whole family.
